

Road Safety Educational Toys and Dignity Packs CSR Project:

The Road Traffic Management Corporation through its CSR programme hosted the Road Safety Educational Toys and Dignity Packs Corporate Social Responsibility Project, in partnership with the Gauteng Department of Community Safety. The handover was led by the MEC. Sizakele Nkosi-Malobane who gave a key note address and handed over the educational toys and dignity packs to the beneficiaries at Unity Primary School, which is situated at, Tarlton Farm, Gauteng province. The handover event was hosted on the 03rd March 2018.

The initiative was aimed at donating 150 (one hundred and fifty) dignity packs and 50 (fifty) educational toys to the learners in the school from less privileged households, identified through the school's Social Welfare Committee. The MEC, the RTMC Management and Representatives from the Office of the Mayor, presented the donated items to the learners from the school during the hand over.
