

PRESS RELEASE

To: All Media
Issued: 07 December 2018
Attention: News Editors / Transport Reporters / PR Wires

FOUR OFFICIALS ARRESTED IN KWA-ZULU NATAL FOR CORRUPTION

BREAKING NEWS: The number of corrupt traffic officials arrested this festive season is rising, about four licensing officers stationed at Underburg licensing department in Kwa-Zulu Natal have been nabbed on allegations of fraud in the early hours today.

The four, three males and a female are accused to have issued learner licenses irregularly. The suspects are currently detained at the South African Police Services (SAPS).

They will appear before the magistrate, Monday, 10 December 2018 to face charges relating to fraud and corruption, the four is expected to apply for bail during their first court appearance.

Members of the Road Traffic Management Corporation Anti-Corruption unit together with, the Hawks and Kwa-Zulu Natal traffic and transport unit raided the learner licence centre Himiville to make the arrests.

“Traffic Corruption erodes efforts made by honest man and woman in the fraternity in fighting the carnage, we have to double our efforts and deal decisively with ill-discipline of our own members”. Adv. Makhosini Msibi: RTMC CEO.

The Road Traffic Management Corporation (RTMC) strongly condemns unlawful behaviour and urges members of the public to report any corrupt activities on 0861 400 800.

ENDS

Issued by: Road Traffic Management Corporation (RTMC)

www.rtmc.co.za

Spokesperson- Simon Zwane: (082) 551 9892